

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES, MINOR

Requirements for the Minor

Students who wish to minor in Latin American Studies must complete a minimum of 18 credits comprising of at least six courses offered by the Program in Latin American Studies (AS.361.xxx) or cross-listed with the Program in Latin American Studies. In addition, students must demonstrate proficiency through the intermediate language in either Spanish or Portuguese by either taking courses or by proficiency documentation through the language program. Language courses taken to meet the minimum proficiency of the minor do not count towards the six required courses. Of the six courses required: (1) no more than two may be in additional language study (AS.210.xxx), (2) two must be taken outside of the Modern Languages and Literatures Department, and (3) four courses must be at the 300-400 level. All courses must be taken for a letter grade and be completed with a grade of C- or better.
