Johns Hopkins University also complies with Federal Law Section 103 (effective Aug. 1, 2019) which ensures that Johns Hopkins University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that an eligible individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement funding from the VA under Chapter 31 or 33.

Information about veterans' benefits and enrollment procedures may be obtained at <https://studentaffairs.jhu.edu/registrar/veterans/> or veterans@jhu.edu the Office of the Registrar, 75 Garland Hall, 410-516-6635.

Once admitted to the university, the student must complete an Application for Program of Education or Training (VA Form 22-1990) from the Department of Veteran Affairs (<https://benefits.va.gov/gibill/>). A copy of the Certificate of Eligibility, can be sent to the Veterans Desk, veterans@jhu.edu. Additional delivery options can be found at <https://studentaffairs.jhu.edu/registrar/veterans/>.

The student who is transferring from another university or college will need to submit a Request for Change of Place of Training (VA Form 22-1995) from the Department of Veteran Affairs (<https://benefits.va.gov/gibill/>). The completed form should be submitted to the VA, and a copy sent to the Veterans Desk at the university.

If they fail to do so, the Department of Veterans Affairs will seek reimbursement from the student for any overpayment.
