ALUMNI

The Carey Business School alumni network is one of the largest alumni networks within Johns Hopkins University and is composed of an extraordinary group of individuals committed to making an impact in their professions and communities. This commitment is a thread that ties the 215,000 alumni of Johns Hopkins University together, an incredible resource for current students.

The Office of Development and Alumni Relations strengthens the alumni bond with cultural, social, and networking opportunities that connect alumni with one another and with current students. An array of opportunities exists for students and alumni to engage with the Carey Business School community, including industry events, mentorship and other volunteer opportunities, and student organization activities. The Office of Development and Alumni Relations continues to identify and develop engagement opportunities with the support and guidance of the Dean’s Alumni Advisory Board, comprised of 25 alumni leaders from around the globe. By sharing the Carey Business School experience with colleagues, friends, and prospective students, and staying in touch with professors and classmates, students play an integral role in growing the Carey family. To take advantage of everything the Carey Business School alumni network has to offer, please visit carey.jhu.edu/alumni-friends/ (http://www.carey.jhu.edu/alumni-friends/).

Students may only spend a few years at Carey, but they are alumni for life. From tools like GoHopOnline (an online networking platform for the Johns Hopkins community) to the eight regional alumni clubs, there are a variety of ways to stay connected and be involved. The strength of the Carey Business School and the Johns Hopkins University network is driven by engaged, passionate alumni who are invested in its future success.

The Office of Development and Alumni Relations welcomes all alumni to pursue lifelong engagement with the Carey Business School. Please contact carey.alumni@jhu.edu with any questions, comments, or ideas.
