THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY ANTI-DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The University does not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, marital status, pregnancy, race, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, veteran status or other legally protected characteristic. The University's equal opportunity, anti-harassment, and sexual misconduct policies apply to prohibit discrimination in all academic programs administered by the University, its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs and athletic programs. These policies apply to all employment decisions as well. Every member of the Johns Hopkins University community is entitled to equal access to the abundant educational and employment opportunities available.

The Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) coordinates ongoing efforts to make the campus accessible and to make JHU programs available to everyone. OIE is charged with ensuring compliance with federal, state and local laws related to affirmative action and equal opportunity; investigates discrimination complaints, including sexual misconduct; provides harassment prevention and disability services training; and serves as a central resource for faculty, staff and students with disabilities. Complaints of discrimination and harassment based on any legally protected characteristic (including, but not limited to, sexual misconduct complaints) may be brought to OIE:
