PY.380.421. Harpsichord Literature 1. 1 Credit.

A study of literature for the harpsichord from the late 16th to the 18th century, as well as the 20th and 21st centuries. The course is approached from the performer's point of view with analysis and discussion of form and style. Special emphasis is given to the exploration of primary sources which shed light on how to approach playing the harpsichord. For keyboard majors or with permission of the instructor.

Distribution Area: P, Y

PY.380.431. Baroque Oboe Class. 1 Credit.

Students will learn important tenets of 18th century performance practice by looking at major repertoire such as Bach cantatas and Passions, and sonatas and concertos by Handel and Telemann. Focus will be given to relevant examples from J.J. Quantz's 1752 treatise on performance practice. Study may be done entirely on baroque oboe, or a combination of modern oboe with some experimentation on baroque oboe.

Distribution Area: P, Y

PY.380.433. Lute Literature & Notation 1. 2 Credits.

This class will focus on the primary compositional trends and corresponding performance practices of early, middle, high and late baroque music for lute, archlute and theorbo. Each two-hour meeting will be divided into 2 parts: sharing of information from light research assignments and in-class performances of repertoire that demonstrate relevant compositional styles and performance practices, as well as points for consideration when transcribing for classical guitar. Research and performance assignments will be shared among students from week to week. Required for MM guitar majors.

Distribution Area: P, Y

PY.380.434. Lute Literature & Notation 2. 2 Credits.

Intensive study of repertoire and genres for Renaissance lute and vihuela through listening, transcribing, and performance of selected works from French, Italian, and German tablatures. Works of Francesco da Milano and John Dowland will be a main focus. Required for MM guitar majors.

Distribution Area: P, Y

PY.380.435. Viola da Gamba Literature. 1 Credit.

A chronological survey of the viola da gamba and its literature from the 16th to 18th centuries. The class will be an opportunity to become familiar with a rich repertoire little known to non-specialists, and to learn about how the world of the baroque era relates to our own. No prior experience in historical performance is required. Prerequisite: History of Music 1, 2, or permission of instructor.

Distribution Area: P, Y

PY.380.436. Early Cello Literature. 1 Credit.

A chronological survey of violoncello literature, pedagogical as well as musical, with an emphasis on historical techniques and performance practices of the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries. No prior experience in historical performance is required, but some familiarity with cello repertoire is expected. Prerequisite: History of Music 1, 2, or permission of instructor.

Prerequisite(s): Undergrads need PY.610.321[C] OR PY.610.322[C] in order to enroll. Grads need to have passed the Musicology Proficiency exam or passed the music history review course.
