ME.140 (GYNECOLOGY AND OBSTETRICS)

ME.140.425. Individualized Medicine from Antiquity to the Genome Age. 0 Credits.

ME.140.600. Women’s Health Core Clerkship (GYN/OB). 0 Credits.
This clerkship introduces students to the discipline of Gynecology/Obstetrics and Women’s Health. Following three days of PRECEDE instruction, students rotate through the following: inpatient obstetrics, inpatient gynecology and selectives. The selectives are chosen from the following: female pelvic and reconstructive medicine, gynecologic oncology, maternal fetal medicine, ambulatory women’s health, reproductive, endocrine and infertility, gynecologic pathology, women’s mood disorders, fetal therapy, community obstetrics or reproductive health. In addition there is a precepted longitudinal ambulatory experience. Instruction occurs through direct patient contact, operating room and bedside teaching, and student conferences.

ME.140.699. Gynecology and Obstetrics Elective. 0 Credits.
For Medical Students only. Specialized Topics in Gynecology and Obstetrics. Refer to Medical Student Electives Book located at https://www.hopkinsmedicine.org/som/students/academics/electives.html.