

COUNSELING, CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDY

The Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study (CAGS) is an advanced 30-credit, post-master's program with a concentration in counseling and clinical supervision for counselors who wish to enhance those skills.

Admission Requirements

Applicants are required to have completed a master's degree in counseling or a related field from an accredited institution of higher education and submit official transcripts from all accredited post-secondary institutions attended, a statement of personal and career goals, a detailed résumé or curriculum vitae, dispositions survey, and two letters of recommendation. (Note: letters are not required for students currently enrolled in the School of Education's Clinical Mental Health Counseling or School Counseling master's programs.) Eligible applicants will be invited for an interview with the admission committee.

Program Requirements

Students develop individualized programs with specialized concentrations with their faculty adviser's approval.
