Academic Advising

Advising at Peabody provides students with resources to support their educational journeys. Studio faculty are important mentors to students as they progress through their major studies and develop as young professionals. Peabody Advising supplements this faculty mentorship and is dedicated to partnering with students to shape their academic experiences through on-going conversations about:

- learning opportunities and challenges
- curricular choices that optimize and individualize their Peabody education
- advancement through academic programs
- administrative policies and procedures
- identification and utilization of resources
- time management and study skills
- personal and educational goals

The Peabody Advising Partnership

Peabody Advising and students build relationships that foster students' acquisition of skills and knowledge to thrive at Peabody and prepare for their futures. Student participation in this relationship is integral to its success and students are encouraged to meet regularly with their advisors. Additionally, understanding the roles of students and advising makes for a better advising experience.

WHAT STUDENTS CAN EXPECT FROM PEABODY ADVISING

- To encourage and support the discovery and development of their personal and academic strengths
- To seek to understand their individual concerns and the unique experiences of student artists
- To assist students in learning and successfully navigating academic requirements, policies, procedures and deadlines
- To educate students on campus resources and support services and their relevance to a student's academic, professional, and personal goals
- To help students develop active responsibility for their educational career

WHAT PEABODY ADVISING EXPECTS FROM STUDENTS

- To identify and cultivate their interests, goals, and values through participation in the Peabody community
- To communicate concerns that impact a student's academic, personal, and professional goals
- To share their achievements and important experiences
- To learn and follow academic requirements, policies, procedures, and deadlines
- To act on referrals to campus resources and support services as well as independently seek them out
- To take ultimate responsibility for their educational career

Peabody Advising can help students plan a course of study, brainstorm options, and research opportunities. Finally, if a student doesn't know where to go to get a question answered, Peabody Advising is a great place to start.
