Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures

Johns Hopkins University (JHU) is committed to promoting a safe and supportive environment for each and every member of our community. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, we encourage you to reach out for support and medical care (<https://oie.jhu.edu/confidential-resources/>). We are available to assist you if you would like to file a report with JHU and/or local law enforcement. The current Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures can be found here (<https://oie.jhu.edu/policies-and-laws/sexual-misconduct-policy-and-procedures-smpp/>).

What is sexual misconduct?

The term “sexual misconduct” refers to various forms of sexual and sex-based harassment, sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, and sexual exploitation. For more information, please view the Revised Interim Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures (<https://oie.jhu.edu/policies-and-laws/sexual-misconduct-policy-and-procedures-smpp/>), which includes definitions of prohibited conduct.
