VETERANS AFFAIRS

Johns Hopkins is approved by the Maryland Higher Education Commission for the training of veterans, service members, eligible spouses and dependents under the provisions of the various federal laws pertaining to veterans' educational benefits. Johns Hopkins University also complies with Federal Law Section 103 (effective Aug. 1, 2019) which ensures that Johns Hopkins University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that an eligible individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement funding from the VA under Chapter 31 or 33.

Contact the JHU Veterans Affairs office (https://registrar.jhu.edu/veterans/) to obtain information about veterans' benefits and enrollment procedures.

Standards of Progress

Continuation of VA payments depends on the student's meeting the university's academic standards for all students. The student must also meet any standards of progress which may be established by VA regulations.

Military TA

Johns Hopkins University is an approved University with the DOD MOU for use of Military TA. For guidance with utilizing Military tuition assistance please contact Nancy Carr at veterans@jhu.edu.

If you are a veteran, active duty service member, or a military affiliated spouse/dependent, you may be eligible for education benefits offered by the Department of Veterans Affairs (https://www.va.gov/education/), including:

- Chapter 33: Post-9/11 GI Bill®
- Chapter 30: Montgomery GI Bill®
- Chapter 31: Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment
- Chapter 35: Dependents' Educational Assistance (DEA) Program
- Chapter 1606: Montgomery GI Bill®: Selected Reserve (MGIB-SR)

It is recommended that all veterans review the GI Bill® web site (https://benefits.va.gov/gibill/). For comprehensive VA Education Benefits counseling, send an email inquiry (https://gibill.custhelp.com/app/utils/login_form/redirect/ask/), or call the VA at 1-888-GIBILL1. If you have questions pertaining to payment, availability of benefits, or approvals, please call the regional VA Education Call Center at 1-888-442-4551.

If you have questions about how your benefits will work at JHU, please contact our Veterans Affairs Office at veterans@jhu.edu or see information found on our Veterans Webpage https://registrar.jhu.edu/veterans/.
