Linguistics Minor Requirements

<https://cogsci.jhu.edu/undergraduate/linguistics-minor/>

A minor in linguistics is available to undergraduates majoring in any department, except for cognitive science majors who choose linguistics as a focal area. Students intending to minor in linguistics should declare their intention, preferably by the beginning of junior year.

The minor requires successful completion of the following with a grade of C- or better.

Code	Title	Credits
Foreign Language
One modern foreign language through the intermediate level OR two 2-20 foreign languages at the elementary level. **
Linguistics Courses
Six courses in linguistics from the Linguistics focal area. *		18
At least four courses must be at the 300-level or above, excluding research, readings, and practica.
Total Credits		30-38

* Qualifying Linguistics courses are found on our departmental website. (<https://cogsci.jhu.edu/undergraduate/cognitive-science-major/>) However, please note that courses change over time, and some courses are not offered every year. Offered linguistics courses are identifiable in SIS (<https://sis.jhu.edu/sswf/>) by the POS-Tag "COGS-LING". Questions about which courses qualify may be directed to the Cognitive Science Director of Undergraduate Studies.
