

PHD SPECIFIC POLICIES

PhD Specific Policies

The Doctor of Philosophy Board, formed in 2010, advises the Provost about university-wide issues pertaining to the Ph.D. and sets guidelines and policies that enhance the experience of all Ph.D. students. This Board also recommends Ph.D. candidates who have met the university-wide requirements for the Ph.D. for conferral to the President. The below policies apply to all Ph.D. students at Johns Hopkins.

PhD Mentoring Policies and Resources

- PhD Mentoring Policies and Resources (<https://provost.jhu.edu/education/graduate-and-professional-education-resources/phd-mentoring-policies-and-resources/>)

PhD Professional Development Policies and Resources

- PhD Professional Development Policies and Resources (<https://provost.jhu.edu/education/graduate-and-professional-education-resources/phd-professional-development-policies-and-resources/>)

University Requirements for PhD

- University Requirements for PhD (<https://provost.jhu.edu/wp-content/uploads/2022/03/university-requirements-for-PhD-1.pdf>)