

HIGHER EDUCATION ACT DISCLOSURES

The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended in 2008, includes many student disclosures and reporting requirements by universities. These requirements include statistics and/or information on the following subjects:

1. Retention and graduation rates;
2. Financial assistance available to students and requirements and restrictions imposed on Title IV aid;
3. Crime statistics;
4. Athletic program participation rates and financial support; and
5. Other institutional information including: the cost of attendance, accreditation and academic program data, facilities and services available to students with disabilities, and withdrawal and refund policies.
